Area Families Invited to Participate in Children's Consignment Sale

Who: Everyone is invited to take part in our region's first-ever Children's Consignment Sale! Whether you are a bargain shopper or have a house full of outgrown children's items, you can participate. Contact Nancy Marley at The Learning Lamp at (814) 262-0732 for a consignor packet. Sellers can also visit The Learning Lamp website at www.thelearninglamp.org to download a packet. A completed Consignor Seller Agreement must be submitted by October 8, 2010 to take part.

What: Families can clean out closets and make extra money or find some great deals at The Learning Lamp's first-ever Children's Consignment Sale. The sale will be held on October 15, 16 and 17, 2010 at the Galleria Mall in Johnstown. Families will earn 50 percent of the proceeds, with the remaining 50 percent supporting free after school programs and tutoring for local students with financial need. The Children's Consignment Sale is designed to help support quality educational programs for children of all abilities and income levels while providing local families with a way to recycle outgrown clothes, toys, sports equipment and other items. Not only can families earn extra income by participating-- they can save money by purchasing another child's outgrown items at a price well below retail.

This sale will be heavily advertised, so we expect GREAT turnout.

When: Friday, October 15, 2010 - Pre-sale 5 – 8 p.m. (Volunteers only)
Saturday, October 16, 2010 - 10 a.m. – 6 p.m.
Sunday, October 17, 2010 - 12 – 3 p.m. (50 percent off sale)

Volunteers are needed for this exciting, first-time event. Anyone who volunteers a minimum of 3 hours will be able to attend the Friday night pre-sale (when the best items are available) and have the $5 consignor fee waived. Volunteers are needed before, after and during the sale.

Where: The Galleria Mall in Johnstown— the exact store location will be available soon.
